

Fall in Love

with God's Word

@ January 2018 by Creative Faith & Co. Hillary Krippaehne and Minerva Valerio // for personal use only // not to be copied, distributed, altered or sold // www.creativefaithco.com

Fall in Love with God's Word

#1: Know the Power in God's Word

What's the most powerful book in the world? Hebrews 4:12 tells us the Bible is stronger than a double edge sword. We face so many battles in life every single day. When we feel under attack, discouraged, or defeated, we need to go to God's Word and read the verses to speak truth into our lives!

#2: Think of it as God's Love Letter to You

Think back to a time when someone was pursuing you romantically. Maybe it was your spouse, or a significant other, or a grade-school crush. It was sweet and I imagine you felt loved. Think of the Bible as a giant love letter that God wrote especially for you. He has left you advice, encouragement, hope and many reminders of His faithfulness.

#3: Create a fun environment while reading

I love reading my Bible even more when I have a cup of hot chocolate or a vanilla chai tea latte in my hand. I am more likely to enjoy myself and want to continue reading if I have my watercolors out, and my favorite pen to highlight what I read.

#4: Read with others!

Reading with friends makes us more likely to open the Word. Just like you are more likely to work out with other people, you are also more likely to read the Bible with friends. Whether you join a Bible study, or just text someone saying that you read a special verse or chapter, this will help you stay accountable and responsible to continue reading. The more you read God's Word, the more likely you are to become hungry for it every single day.

Going Deeper

1. Draw a battle you have right now. Read Hebrews 4:12 and draw yourself using God's Word like a sword in the battle to defend yourself.
2. Read Psalm 119:1-16. Write these verses. Highlight the important phrases and words from this section of Scripture.
3. How can you fall in love with reading God's Word? Would it help if you did it with friends or joined a Bible study? Would it help if you made your favorite cup of coffee or tea and read in the morning? Brainstorm a list of ideas and put one in practice today!
4. Draw a picture of your favorite place to read God's Word. If you don't have one, dream of what that space would look like.
5. Read and illustrate Jeremiah 15:16.
6. Write a prayer, asking God to help you fall in love with reading His Word. He answers prayers, especially that kind! He will put the desire in your heart if you ask Him.

© January 2018 by Creative Faith & Co. Hillary Krippaehne and Minerva Valerio // for personal use only // not to be copied, distributed, altered or sold // www.creativefaithco.com